“The Greatest Deal I Ever Got”

Pros reveal the biggest hits of their shopping histories.

“My go-to spot for vintage and antique furniture is the Antique Warehouse, in Hudson, New York. Ask the staff if you don’t see the specific item you’re looking for. My best deal was an LC4 chaise longue, circa 1968, for $1,000.”

“We found a beautiful kidney-shaped desk for $200 on eBay and had it painted with Fine Paints of Europe to turn it into a showstopper. That’s where we go for unique pieces that are affordable.”

“Recently, I found a swivel chair at Brimfield Antique Market upholstered in the most hideous ’90s neon Wolf of Wall Street fabric, but it had such a beautiful form. We had it reupholstered in a yummy Holly Hunt fabric, and now I love it.”

“The estate of the famous late singer Perry Como was up for auction on Long Island, and he had a beautiful abstract bronze bust in his collection. I put in an online bid of $5, fully expecting not to be the highest bidder, but I won! It’s a favorite in my house.”
